LEMBERG & ASSOCIATES FIRM RESUME

Lemberg & Associates LLC was founded in 2006. The law firm's practice focuses on consumer law and related class action litigation. Mr. Lemberg received his law degree from the University Of Pennsylvania Law School in 2001, following graduation from Brandeis University with a degree in economics in 1997. Prior to starting his own law firm, Mr. Lemberg held positions in the New York offices of Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C. and practiced corporate bankruptcy and reorganization law at Andrews Kurth LLP and Day Pitney LLP.

The firm has been lead counsel in several class actions, including Sladic v. I.C. System, Inc., E.D.N.Y., 09 CV 3497 (appointed co-counsel representing a class of New York consumers who charged illegal collection fees in this action consolidated with Fahme v. I.C. System, Inc., E.D.N.Y., 08 CV 1487 and Hurwitz v. I.C. System, Inc., E.D.N.Y., 08 CV 4351); Douma v. Law Offices of Mitchell N. Kay P.C. S.D.N.Y. 09 CV 9957 (awaiting approval of settlement of class action on behalf of recipients of illegal correspondence from Defendant); Waiters v. Collection Technology, Inc., No.: 1:10-cv-02514-RJS (awaiting approval of settlement of class action on behalf of recipients of illegal correspondence from Defendant). The firm represents plaintiffs in more than a dozen additional class action cases in various stages of litigation.

In the bankruptcy of Chemtura Corporation, 09-11233 (S.D.N.Y, Gerber, J.), the Lemberg firm has successfully represented a group comprised of more than 600 Chemtura retirees who maintain entitlement to vested retirement benefits. On behalf of the group, the firm has obtained an unprecedented injunction prohibiting the debtor from terminating the retirees' benefits while adjudication of the underlying dispute is pending. In the face of staunch opposition from Kirkland Ellis LLP, representing the debtor, and Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, representing the Creditors' Committee, the injunction has been in effect for over a year, while the court considers whether the retirees may proceed with discovery. Each month retirees in the group receive well over $100,000 of retirement benefits that would have otherwise been terminated.

Mr. Lemberg is considered an authoritative source for consumer law issues by national media such as ABC News, MSN.com, and Chanel 7 in Boston, the Los Angeles Times, Consumer Reports, and the Boston Herald. Mr. Lemberg is a native speaker of Russian, and speaks French and Spanish.

Mr. Lemberg is admitted to practice law in Massachusetts (2002), New York (2002) and Connecticut (2005). He is admitted to all federal courts in these States. He is admitted to the First Circuit Court of Appeals, Third Circuit Court of Appeals, and Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Mr. Lemberg recently co-authored the definitive compilation of form complaints in Connecticut, Connecticut Civil Complaints for Business Litigation, contributing form complaints for Lemon Law and Auto Fraud sections.
